

Excepted Group Life

PRODUCT SUMMARY

What is Excepted Group Life?

Group life assurance provides a lump sum to the dependants of an employee who dies whilst covered by the scheme. The benefits are paid to the Trustees of the Excepted Life Trust so are normally free from inheritance tax.

There are usually no exclusions under the policy, although there is a maximum total amount that may be paid to the Trustees if multiple deaths arise from the same cause. Employees cannot be covered under this policy beyond their 75th birthday.

The following is a high level outline of our Excepted Group Life product. For full information please refer to the technical guide or policy terms and conditions which can be found on our website.

Insurance Act 2015 – paying claims in full	The employer has a duty to make a fair presentation of the risk to us. If they do not fairly present the risk and we would have charged a higher premium (if we had known the omitted information), the Insurance Act 2015 allows us to proportionately reduce the claim amount (but not charge the higher premium). We believe it is fairer to contract out of this part of the Insurance Act 2015. By contracting out, we can pay those claims in full, rather than proportionately, whilst charging the employer the correct higher premium (and apply any other different policy terms which we would have applied if we had known the information).
